Covenant House is the largest privately funded nonprofit agency in North and Central America providing shelter and other services to homeless, runaway and throwaway youth. Covenant House Missouri has 32 Rights of Passage-Transitional Living Program (ROP-TLP) rooms--sixteen for girls and sixteen for boys. Components of the ROP-TLP include not only shelter, but also counseling, budgeting, life skills, employment assistance, educational referrals, and recreational outings. ROP-TLP clients may also continue to access services from the day services provided in the Center for Youth. Residents in the ROP-TLP may remain in housing for up to 24 months.
